7 BOOKS TO LEAD YOUR TEAM TO SUCCESS

THE COACHING HABIT: SAY LESS, ASK MORE & CHANGE THE WAY YOU LEAD FOREVER

BY MICHAEL BUNGAY STANIER

This manager playbook combines insider information, neuroscience and behavioral economics to help make coaching a regular, informal part of your day. Thanks to seven transformative questions, The Coaching Habit's your new go-to weapon for leading (and supporting) your teams by unlocking people's potential and driving great business results.

THE CODE OF THE EXTRAORDINARY MIND: 10 UNCONVENTIONAL LAWS TO REDEFINE YOUR LIFE & SUCCEED ON YOUR OWN TERMS

BY VISHEN LAKHIANI

Forget the rules of the past — and redefine what happiness, purpose and success mean for you. The Code of Extraordinary Mind will help you get started. Vishen Lakhiani reveals a framework based on personal experience, his company's 5 million customers and 200 hours of interviews with today's top entrepreneurs.

THE EFFECTIVE MANAGER

BY MARK HORSTMAN

The manager-employee relationship is arguably the most important one in the office. Why? Because it can lead to more productive, efficient and loyal employees. The Effective Manager is perfect for managers, directors and executives who want actionable advice. Learn how to optimize performance through four critical behaviors: building relationships, providing feedback, coaching and delegating.

EGO IS THE ENEMY

BY RYAN HOLIDAY

Our ego holds us back at every stage of our career. Ryan Holiday explains why it's the barrier to our goals, our successes, our failures — essentially, everything we do in life. He shares how to manage and tame our insatiable egos so we can lead the most meaningful lives.

ORIGINALS: HOW NON-CONFORMISTS MOVE THE WORLD

BY ADAM GRANT

Originals examines how the best leaders champion new ideas and fight groupthink. Adam Grant shares data, insights and examples of famous innovators and their out-of-the-box habits. Even better, he shares actionable concepts for cultivating originality in your own organization. By the end of the book, you'll learn what it takes to spark creativity and make a difference in your workplace.
